Settle into your comfortable cabin, then head to the sun deck to take in the first sweeping views of life on the river. As the ship gently casts off, enjoy cocktails and canapés while getting to know your fellow travellers and friendly crew.

This evening, savour a delicious welcome dinner on board as the serene Cambodian countryside drifts by, and the mighty Mekong River beckons us onward on our journey through the heart of Indochina.

DAY 2 - INTO THE MEKONG DELTA

Start your morning on deck with a peaceful sunrise cruise to Peam Chi Korng, an untouched gem and a hub of traditional Cambodian pottery. After a short tuk-tuk ride from the banks of the Mekong, witness local potters at work and explore the vibrant village market, where you can try your hand at the local language while browsing fresh produce and handmade goods.

In the afternoon, step ashore at Pak Russei, a small, remote village where local craftspeople create silk and handmade noodles. Here, you'll learn about the ancient art of Bokator, a traditional form of Khmer martial arts, with a private performance in the village — an intimate insight into Cambodia's proud cultural traditions. Return to the ship in the evening, carrying with you memories of a day steeped in creativity and local life along the Mekong.

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Accommodation: RV Bassac Pandaw

DAY 3 - LIFE ON THE TONLE SAP RIVER

Today we travel by coach to Oudong, Cambodia's ancient capital. Here we visit the Vipassana Dhura Meditation Centre and enjoy a short meditation class, allowing a moment of calm reflection amidst the stunning Khmer architecture. Stroll through the sprawling complex, taking in the historic stupas and scenic surroundings before returning to the ship in Kampong Tralach for lunch.

In the afternoon, experience rural life along the river as we travel by ox-cart through riverside villages, local markets, and temples. See how villagers go about their daily lives and immerse yourself in the rhythms of the Tonle Sap communities. As evening falls, enjoy cocktails around a village fire pit, where locals join us to share traditional dancing, music, and stories — a perfect introduction to Khmer culture.

DAY 4 - DISCOVERING PHNOM PENH

Wake to find yourself in Phnom Penh, Cambodia's vibrant capital, where French colonial charm blends with golden spires and lively riverside boulevards. After breakfast on board, set out on a guided cyclo tour, the traditional rickshaws that weave through the city's bustling streets. Take in elegant French villas, tree-lined avenues, and the bustling waterfront before pausing to soak up the city's lively atmosphere.

Visit the Royal Palace and the Silver Pagoda, followed by the National Museum, home to an exquisite collection of Angkorian art and statuary. In the afternoon, gain a deeper understanding of Cambodia's recent history with visits to the Killing Fields and the Genocide Museum, learning more about the Khmer Rouge era.

As evening falls, Phnom Penh comes alive with twinkling lights and the hum of riverside life. Join your fellow travellers for an optional evening excursion to experience the city by night — perhaps a lively bar or a local restaurant — before returning to the ship. The vessel moors here overnight, giving you time to savour the energy and charm of Cambodia's captivating capital.

Later, we arrive in Chau Doc, a bustling riverside town brimming with local character. As evening falls, enjoy a leisurely stroll along the river, soaking up the atmosphere before returning to the ship for dinner on board, sharing stories of the day with your fellow travellers.

DAY 6 - CHAU DOC & SAM MOUNTAIN

This morning, we set off with a sense of adventure, taking minivans up to Sam Mountain, where the Hang Pagoda (Phuoc Dien Tu) awaits. Climb the 400 steps at your own pace, enjoying playful glimpses of local life along the way, before being rewarded with breathtaking panoramic views of the surrounding countryside and the sparkling Mekong River.

Afterwards, we return to the ship and sail alongside the picturesque border town of Chau Doc. Step into the waterways aboard traditional sampans to explore floating fish farms and witness life along the Mekong up close. Along the way, we visit a Cham village, gaining insight into the lives and traditions of Vietnamese Muslims in this unique community.

After a leisurely lunch on board, the ship continues deeper into the heart of the Mekong Delta, cruising past verdant landscapes, riverine villages, and the everyday rhythms of life on the water.

*Note: During high water periods in October and November, navigation into Chau Doc may be hampered by low bridges meaning today's excursion will be replaced with a local village visit at Long Thuan .

DAY 7 - BEN TRE & SAILING INTO SAIGON

This morning, we set off by sampan through winding mangroves and bamboo-lined waterways toward the fertile fruit orchards of Ben Tre, a heartland of the Mekong Delta where half of Vietnam's rice is grown. Along the way, enjoy glimpses of traditional river life and visit a local village specialising in handicrafts, witnessing the artisanal skills that have been passed down through generations.

After returning to the ship, enjoy a leisurely lunch on board as we sail through the historic Cho Gao Canal. Constructed in 1876 by the French, this vital waterway is still bustling with trade and offers a fascinating window into everyday life along the Mekong.

As evening falls, the vessel glides into central Saigon, where the stunning skyline provides a dramatic backdrop to our farewell dinner on board, a perfect way to celebrate the end of your Mekong journey.
